

Intenrship

Supporting the development department
(immediately)

What tasks await you?

- Assistance with day-to-day operations
- Designing components (using CREO Parametric)
- Assisting with research and exploration activities
- Assembling equipment components and assemblies
- Processing components (milling, sawing, drilling, etc.)

What can you expect from us?

- A young, helpful, and highly motivated team
- Flexible working hours
- Hands-on mentality and working directly on the product
- Daily varying challenges
- Shared lunches and team events

What do we wish from you?

- General high school diploma or technical degree
- Manual dexterity
- Willingness to learn and no aversion to physical work
- Interest in automation technology / mechanical engineering
- Motivation and enjoyment in working within a team

Become a part of our team at the Landshut location!

Simply send your application documents to bewerbung@ringbach.com!
Still have questions? You can reach us by phone at 0871 97472380.

Your contact person:

Benedikt Häring
Siemensstraße 17
84030 Landshut