

Working student (m/w/d) Web development and website design (immediately)

What tasks await you?

- Designing user interfaces using HTML and CSS methods along with popular page builders
- Integrating data from backend services, databases, and interfaces
- Responsibility for the maintenance and upkeep of websites

What can you expect from us?

- A young, helpful, and highly motivated team
- Flexible working hours
- Opportunity to work remotely from home
- Daily varying challenges
- Shared lunches and team events

What do we wish from you?

- Studies in the field of computer science
- Basic programming skills
- Willingness to learn and work independently
- Interest in automation technology / mechanical engineering
- Motivation and enjoyment in working within a team

Become a part of our team at our Landshut location!

Simply send your application documents to bewerbung@ringbach.com! Still have guestions? You can reach us by phone at 0871 97472380.

Your contact person:

Benedikt Häring Siemensstraße 17 84030 Landshut